

Each item below contains a sentence fragment. Fix it in the space provided.

1. The economy has everyone in the world worried and stressed. Especially in the Midwest.

---

---

2. I have learned a lot in the five months I have worked at Walmart. Even more than I learned throughout high school.

---

---

3. Over the years as my aunt grew up into a woman and we adopted many of her traditions.

---

---

4. As I sit in my writing class to take the exit exam, so that I can pass this class.

---

---

5. Especially since most people in the United States would never travel to a strange new land just for adventure.

---

---

6. For example, my boyfriend my freshman year of high school.

---

---

7. After treatment with a therapist and his recovery from a life of alcohol addiction.

---

---

8. I would lie to my boss. Saying I could not work on a given day because I was busy with schoolwork or some other activity.

---

---

9. My mother, a nurse who gives so much of her time to the community by doing charity work, visiting nursing homes, and feeding the homeless.

---

---

10. Over the past few years, I have made many dumb decisions. Decisions ranging from not attending school on a test date to running from mall security guards.

---

---

11. In May of 2009, when my dad gave me an ultimatum of either going back to school or moving out of his house. I had to make a decision that would affect the rest of my life.

---

---

12. I started working at the university. Which not only helped me with money but also helped me focus on school.

---

---

13. I had been doing drugs for more than half my life. Letting the lives of my children pass by without my presence.

---

---

14. My mom always trying to make the right decisions so I could become a better person.

---

---

15. On a four-day, three-night college summit workshop held at Nova Southeastern University.

---

---

16. Decisions are made every day. Difficult decisions and even decisions about what to have for dinner.

---

---