

<http://www.grammar-worksheets.com>: Subject-Verb Agreement – To Have (has, have)

Please rewrite each sentence below, using the correct form of the verb.

1. Because Mary Ellen (has, have) not finished her chores, she cannot go to the movies.

2. The auditorium (has, have) two hundred seats with a good view of the stage.

3. Burger King (has, have) seven hundred restaurant tables for sale at the city auction.

4. Unlike Kareem, Jason (has, have) to study very hard in order to get high marks in mathematics.

5. Marvin wants to visit Greece because he (has, have) never seen The Acropolis.

6. The children next door (has, have) planted a flower garden next to the fence.

7. You (has, have) never finished your homework by the time your mother gets home.

8. The guests (has, have) not arrived yet.

9. Mercy Hospital (has, have) the state's highest success rate with cancer patients.

10. Mariah and Jason (has, have) given twenty thousand dollars to charity.

11. The cat in the garage (has, have) a ball, some yarn, and a toy mouse to play with.

12. Rico and Marie (has, have) not returned my phone calls for over a month.

13. When Farah and Malik cook dinner, they always (has, have) enough food left over for the next day.

14. Under the car seat are two notebooks that my brother (has, have) been missing for three weeks.

15. Curry (has, have) been a popular spice in Caribbean cooking for generations.

16. Thai food is characterized by spices that (has, have) a sharp, sweet taste and aroma.

17. French Euro Roast coffee and Sumatra coffee (has, have) been served at Starbuck's for a long time.

18. Colin and Anna's dog has chew toys that (has, have) been in the garage for weeks.

19. The toast at Rob's Diner always (has, have) just enough butter to keep the crust moist.

20. The pictures from Diana's photography class (has, have) been accepted by the gallery.
